

Exception Handling Policy

Transient application failures may be retried at most two times with bounded backoff.

Permanent validation failures must not be blindly retried.

Do not retry duplicate creation, policy violations or approval requirements.

All worker actions and outcomes must be captured in an execution trace.